

Wisconsin Department of Health Services TEFAP Income Eligibility 2018

Wisconsin residents* who self-declare that the combined incomes of their household members is equal to or less than the following amounts are eligible to participate in The Emergency Food Assistance Program (TEFAP) and receive USDA Commodity Foods from a TEFAP food pantry at no cost to their households.

Household Size	Monthly Income	Annual Income
1	$1,872	$22,464
2	$2,538	$30,456
3	$3,204	$38,448
4	$3,870	$46,440
5	$4,536	$54,432
6	$5,202	$62,424
7	$5,868	$70,416
8	$6,534	$78,408
9	$7,200	$86,400
10	$7,866	$94,392
11 or more people	Add $666 per person	Add $7,992 per person

*Applicants are presumed to be Wisconsin residents at initial application but proof of address is required by the third food distribution and once annually thereafter and when a household relocates. To establish household size, participants must present one form of identification (ID) for each household member by the third food distribution or the pantry may reduce the size of the food distribution. ID is required each time from the person receiving the household's food. Exceptions may be made to these requirements; please have a confidential discussion with the pantry manager if you lack the required documentation.
