Get the food you need

Who can get food?

Any La Crosse county or La Crescent resident is eligible to receive food for their household.

What you receive

Every eligible household will receive a food package providing four to five days worth of food per person. Each package typically contains nonperishable food items, frozen meat, bakery, dairy, fresh produce, and hygiene items. Selection varies based on availability. Quantities vary by household size.

How to get food

On your first visit you will need:

- ✓ A photo ID
- ✓ A piece of mail with current address
- ✓ Knowledge of monthly or yearly pay
- ✓ The names and birthdates for every person in the household

On future visits you will need:

- ✓ A photo ID
- ✓ A piece of mail if you have a new address
